What is the New Practitioner eXperience (NPX)?

The NPX is your solution hub for all of the questions you didn't know to ask during pharmacy school. From personal finance to networking and management issues and more, attending NPX events will provide you the answers you need, helping you achieve both personal and professional success.

What does the NPX do?

Any of these questions ever crossed your mind?
Find answers to these and more at NPX events

Leadership / Management

- Everybody talks about leadership, but why would anyone want to follow me?
- From getting the grade to giving the grade – how to give feedback that will drive performance.
- How do I find the right candidate? The questions to ask that will get you the answers you need.

Advocacy

- How do I get involved in advocacy efforts?
- Why is advocacy important? What issues are currently impacting pharmacy?

Networking

- Everyone says networking is important but how?
- I hate my job. How do I get another one?
- Is networking just using people? How to build a network that will last.

Personal Finance:

- I make six figures! Now what?
- What is an interest rate? How the smartest students pay down their debt.
- I have significant credit card debt. How do I dig myself out?

How do I get involved?

Membership to the NPX is automatic (and free!) for all OPA members that have been in practice 7 years or less. You will be receiving information regarding upcoming events and leadership opportunities in the near future.
